

sermon notes

Lessons from the Recent Supreme Court Ruling Regarding Roe v. Wade July 3, 2022

introductory Scripture: Psalm 139:1-4, 13-16

1. The importance of _____ giving thanks _____ to God for His blessings (James 1:17).

supporting Scriptures: Ephesians 5:20
Luke 17:15-17

In light of the recent Supreme Court ruling, give thanks to God:

1) for the ____ courage _____ of the Supreme Court justices who voted to strike down Roe v. Wade

2) that abortion will not be as readily _____ available _____ as it used to be, and that many more unborn babies will be given the chance to live

3) that _____ churches _____ have not been attacked since the Supreme Court ruling was announced

2. Keep _____ praying _____, keep trusting God, and keep taking a stand for what's right (Galatians 6:9). It's always too soon to give up on God!

supporting Scriptures: Luke 18:1
John chapter 11

3. Abortionists and pro-abortion advocates can be ____ saved ____ and change their minds about abortion, because the grace of God is greater than people's sinfulness (Romans 5:20).

supporting Scriptures: Matthew 5:43-44
Galatians 1:23-24