

sermon notes

A Psalm To Take Personally
Psalm 27 - February 26, 2023

introduction: There are 46 first-person pronouns (I, me, my) in the first thirteen verses of Psalm 27. It's a Psalm to take personally!

1. Personal _____protection_____ from the Lord (Psalm 27:1-3, 5)

supporting Scripture: Romans 8:31

2. A personal _____desire_____ to spend time with the Lord (Psalm 27:4)

3. Personal _____praise_____ to the Lord (Psalm 27:6)

supporting Scriptures: Psalm 145:3, 21

4. Personal _____prayer_____, crying out to the Lord (Psalm 27:7-9)

supporting Scriptures: Jeremiah 29:13; James 4:8; Hebrews 13:5-6

5. Personal care _____by the Lord_____ (Psalm 27:10)

supporting Scripture: 1 Peter 5:7

6. Personal instruction and _____guidance_____ from the Lord (Psalm 27:11-12)

supporting Scriptures: Proverbs 3:6; Psalm 119:105

7. Personal _____trust_____ in the Lord (Psalm 27:13)

supporting Scripture: Romans 8:28

8. Personal application: _____Wait_____ on the Lord (Psalm 27:14) — put your hope, your solid confidence, in the Lord.

supporting Scripture: Isaiah 40:31